

HOLDING THE TENSION: ETHICAL PRACTICE IN REFLECTIVE SUPERVISION & LEADERSHIP

When the path forward isn't clear, how do you decide what's right?

Even with clear policies, strong values, and good intentions, professionals often face situations with no perfect answer — only choices that require thoughtful consideration, care, and responsibility.

This workshop explores how reflective capacities — like self-awareness, shared inquiry, attention to parallel process, and tolerance for ambiguity — support ethical decision-making across leadership, supervision, and direct practice roles.

What to Expect:

- Explore real ethical dilemmas without easy answers
- Guided reflection to weigh competing responsibilities, risks, and potential harm
- Support in staying grounded and thoughtful under pressure
